

Ferry service information

- Fares are paid on board the vessel.
- Concession fares are available, however concession cards must be shown to receive the fare discount.
- Children under five years travel free and children 5-14 years are entitled to concession fares.
- Lost property enquiries can be made on board or at the office during office hours.

Ferry service regulations

The Masters of Amity Trader vessels have the right to refuse entry to any person involved in the following matters under Section 188 of the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994:

- disorderly or violent behaviour
 - annoyance or injury to other persons
 - being in an intoxicated condition.
- The carriage of pets is not permitted unless they are properly contained or controlled, that is: muzzle, lead or cage. Small dogs may be carried. No dogs are allowed on the seats.

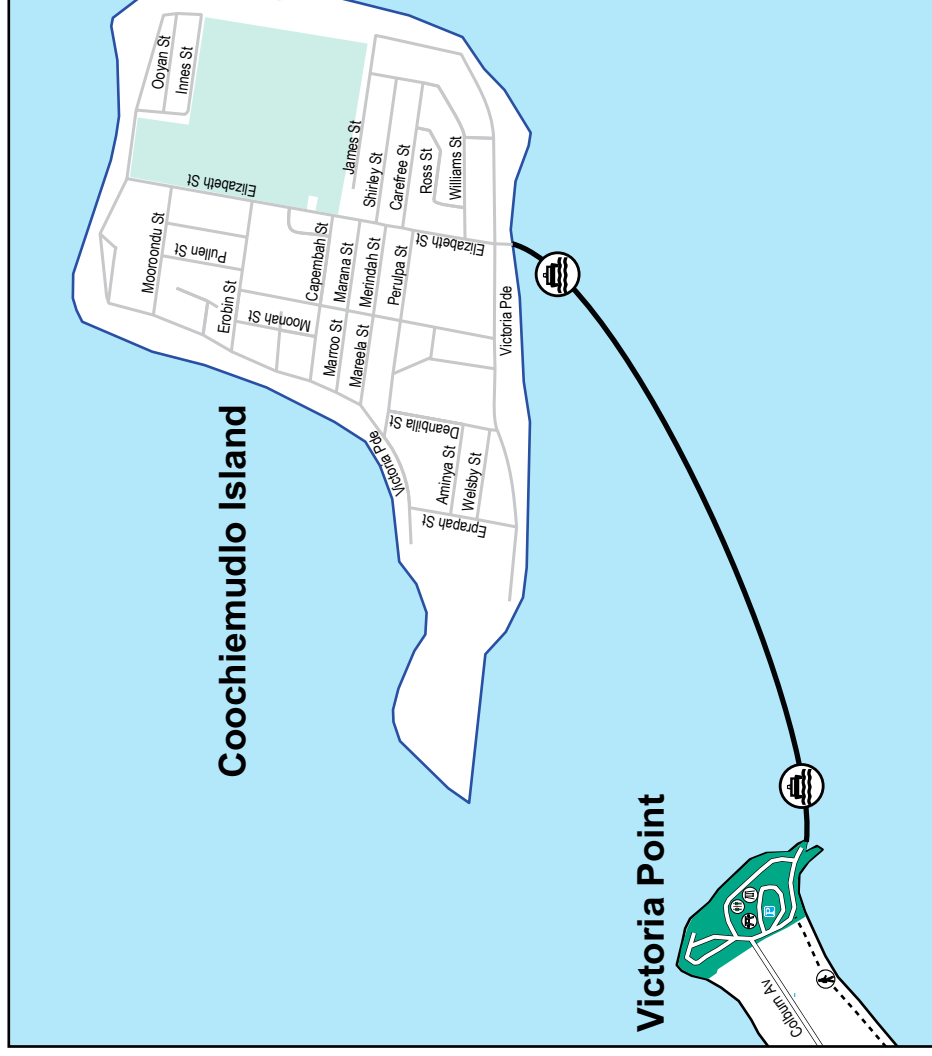

Safety information

To assist us in providing better services to our valued patrons we would ask that you adhere to the following safety rules:

- Be careful when boarding and disembarking vessels especially in wet weather or when carrying heavy items.
- If you require assistance when boarding or disembarking please ask our crew.
- Please keep access clear for disembarking passengers while waiting to board.
- Please remain seated while vessel is underway and until properly secured to a wharf.
- Children must be supervised by a parent or guardian at all times.
